Your share of the partnership's trading or professional profits

Boxes 6 and 7 Basis period

You pay tax on the profits of your basis period for the tax year. When you've been in business for a couple of years, your basis period is usually the same as the 12 month accounting period.

Starting in business

If your business began between 6 April 2022 and 5 April 2023

Your basis period begins on the date you started in business and ends on 5 April 2023.

If your business began between 6 April 2021 and 5 April 2022

If the accounting date in the period 6 April 2022 to 5 April 2023 is:

- 12 months or more after the date your business began, your basis period is the 12 months to that accounting date
- less than 12 months after the date you started in business, your basis period is the 12 months beginning on the date you started

If there's no accounting date in the period 6 April 2022 to 5 April 2023, your basis period is 6 April 2022 to 5 April 2023.

Ceasing in Business

If your business ended between 6 April 2022 and 5 April 2023

If you're disputing your share of the partnership's profit or loss, still copy it to box 8 and make a referral to the Tribunal Service to determine the definitive figure to be used. You must also tell both the nominated partner (the partner nominated by the partnership to submit the partnership return) and HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) that you've made this application to the tribunal.

Before making a referral to the Tribunal Service, HMRC recommend that you contact the nominated partner responsible for completing the partnership statement to try to resolve the issue.
